UNDP Vietnam

Cover Letter for Administrative Intern Position

Dear UNDP Vietnam Hiring Committee,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Administrative Intern position at UNDP Vietnam. I am currently in my final year of a four-year Bachelor's program in International Relations at the Diplomatic Academy of Vietnam, where my studies have provided me with a solid foundation in international politics, multilateral institutions, and the United Nations system. Through this academic background, I have developed a strong understanding of UNDP's mandate, structure, and development priorities within the UN Common System.

I am proficient in English, and I self-evaluate my French at a B1 level. I have also participated in a UN Simulation event at DAV as an observer, which helped me better understand UN procedures, diplomatic communication, and institutional workflows.

Beyond my academic experience, I bring strong technical and administrative skills. I am proficient in Microsoft Word, PowerPoint, and Excel, and I also have programming experience. I can build basic websites as well as mobile and desktop applications—skills that may be useful for supporting administrative or digital tasks within the office.

I have lived in Hanoi my entire life, and my home is located approximately 2 kilometers from UNDP's headquarters. This allows me to be highly flexible, punctual, and available for on-site work whenever needed. I am proactive, reliable, and comfortable working with people, with strong interpersonal skills shaped through sports, music, and various team-based activities.
Thank you very much for considering my application. I would be grateful for the opportunity to contribute to UNDP Vietnam and to learn from an organization I deeply admire. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss my application further.

Sincerely,
Quách Đỗ Minh
